CONTENTS

EDITORIAL

Herwig Grimm, Norbert Alzmann and Vera Marashi
Taking Ethical Considerations into Account? Methods to Carry Out the Harm-Benefit Analysis According to the Directive 2010/63/EU

ARTICLES

The Harm-Benefit Analysis

General Issues

Norbert Alzmann
Catalogues of Criteria – Assistance for the Harm-Benefit Analysis to Objectify the Assessment of Ethical Acceptability

Regina Binder
Balancing Competing Values in a Legal Setting: Evaluating Harm and Benefit of Proposed Animal Experiments

Tjard de Cock Buning
Structural Aspects of the Ethical Assessment: Assumptions and Implications on Animal Protection and Societal Distrust

Jörg Luy
The Principle of Proportionality: The Concept and its Application to Animal Protection Issues such as the “Three Rs” and the “Harm-Benefit Analysis”

Christoph Maisack
Harm-Benefit Analysis According to Directive 2010/63/EU, Article 38: What Does It Mean and How To Realize It?

Peter Sandøe, Nuno H. Franco, Thomas B. Lund, Daniel M. Weary and I. Anna S. Olsson
Harms to Animals – Can We Agree on How Best to Limit Them?

I. Anna S. Olsson, Orsolya Varga and Peter Sandøe
A Matter of Importance: Considering Benefit in Animal Ethics Review

Arguments and ideas in the context of EU member states and Switzerland

Vanessa Gerritsen
Evaluation Process for Animal Experiment Applications in Switzerland

Maggy Jennings
The Harm-Benefit analysis and project evaluation – a UK perspective

Helena Röcklinsberg

Horst Spielmann
Legal and Ethical Aspects of the German Animal Welfare Act

Proposed tools

Toni Lindl, Ulrike Gross, Irmela Ruhdel and Manfred Völkel
Guidance on Determining Indispensability and Balancing Potential Benefits of Animal Experiments with Costs to the Animals with Specific Consideration of EU Directive 2010/63/EU

Frans R. Stafleu and Henriëtte Baut
A Dutch Ethical Assessment Tool to Meet the New Directive. Work In Progress

IMPRINT